

B.Sc Chemistry

- a) The students are expected to understand the fundamentals, principles, mathematical concepts and recent developments in the subject area.
- b) The practical course is in relevance to the theory courses to improve the understanding of the concepts.
- c) It would help in development of practical skills of the students.
- d) It is expected to inspire and boost interest of the students towards chemistry as the main subject.
- e) It would enable to develop interdisciplinary approach of the subjects for students opting for specialization in other subjects at latter stages of graduation.