

BA English

- a) Students get familiarized with excellent pieces of prose and poetry in English and they realize the beauty and communicative power of English.
- b) The students become aware of different types of literature in English, literary devices and terms which help them in understanding literary merit, beauty and creative use of language.
- c) Overall linguistic competence and communicative skills.
- d) Awareness about the technical aspects and their practical usage.
- e) Detailed study and understanding of literature and language.
- f) Inculcates integrated view about language and literature in them.