

BA German

- a) Students get enabled to explore and develop their interest in interpreting and analysing literary and non-literary texts in German.
- b) Students get introduced to basic vocabulary of business German and special skills such as writing a job application or resume, business letters etc.

Knowledge about some significant German philosophers and their philosophical discourses