

BA Political Science

- a) Students get knowledge about the role of different political ideologies and their impact in politics.
- b) Students are introduced to the structure of Local Self Government of Maharashtra, Local Self Institutions, their functions, compositions and importance.
- c) Acquaintance with essence of Public Administration which lies in its effectiveness in translating the governing philosophy into programmes, policies and activities and making it a part of community living.