

BA Psychology

- a) Students get acquainted with various applications of psychology.
- b) Understand basic concepts, principles and theories of Psychology that help to familiarize one with historical background, theoretical perspectives and empirical findings within the subject.
- c) Students understand the relationship between theoretical and applied aspects of Psychology.
- d) Knowledge of psychological testing, its administration, scoring and interpretation.

Undertake an independent small-scale research projects or projects related with social works